Ms. Jenifer Renzel
 Director, Sloan Program
 Graduate School of Business
 Stanford, CA 94305

Dear Ms. Renzel:

I regret [redacted] will be unable to join the 1985-86 Sloan Class at Stanford. As too often happens in our work, [redacted] was needed on short notice to assume a vitally important position [redacted]. I understand that he already has informed you that his participation in your program thus will be impossible at this time.

I am genuinely sorry that [redacted] will not be able to participate in the Sloan Program. I felt it would be a valuable experience for him and that we, in turn, would also benefit. We were delighted that [redacted] was accepted. I hope that you appreciate that as much as we try to plan ahead, the unpredictable events of international life sometimes force us to make abrupt changes in assignments.

I request, therefore, that you retain [redacted] application in the hope that he will be able to join you at some point in the future.

Sincerely,

Robert M. Gates
 Deputy Director for Intelligence
